RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On November 29, 2021, Steven Beachy filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he received an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on January 20, 2020, and thereafter suffered from Guillain-Barré syndrome (“GBS”). Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that his injury lasted for more than six months. Petition at 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 14, 2022, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that “petitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the revised Vaccine Injury Table (Table) and the Qualifications and Aids to

Interpretation (QAI), which afford petitioner a presumption of causation if the onset of GBS occurs between three and forty-two days after a seasonal flu vaccination and there is no apparent alternative cause.” Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that the six month sequela requirement has been satisfied and that Petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
